Thoughts for Today's Readings ...

To the Point: When Peter rebukes Jesus for predicting his passion, it's almost as if he stopped listening after hearing Jesus reveal that he would suffer and die. It is normal to protest when thinking of a loved one going through pain and death; he goes on to say he will also be raised. Jesus' response to Peter is to exclaim, "Get behind me, Satan!" Earlier in Matthew's gospel when tempted in the desert, Jesus refuses to give in to the devil's suggestions that he turn rock into bread, test God's love for him, or bow down in worship in return for power and authority. At the end he yells, "Get away, Satan!" As a human being, Jesus can be tempted, though as God he does not give in to temptation. In Peter's protest that "no such thing shall happen to you," he is tempting Jesus to turn away from the cross. But Jesus knows that the only way to risen life is through death.

Connecting the Gospel to Experience: How do you offer your life up to God as an act of worship?

1. Jeremiah says his call to prophesy is like "fire burning in my heart." What work has God called you to that sparks this kind of passion?
2. The psalmist proclaims to God, "You are my help ... My soul clings fast to you." Where are you most in need of God's assistance right now in your life?
3. St. Paul invites the Romans to "discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect." How do you practice discernment in your life when faced with a big decision?
4. In the gospel Jesus says, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me." What is the cross you have been given to bear?

Pastor's Perspective ...

"THE COST OF DISCIPLESHIP"

The readings for this Mass remind us that Christian discipleship demands honesty, the willingness to suffer, generosity and readiness to follow Jesus by obeying his commandment of love.

Our readings today explain how this Christian mission should be accomplished. Jeremiah, in the first reading, is certainly a prototype of the suffering Christ. In our second reading, St. Paul advises the Romans and all of us to offer our bodies as a living sacrifice to God, by explicitly rejecting the ungodly behavior of the world around us and by discerning and doing the will of God.

In our Gospel reading, Jesus takes his disciples by surprise when, after Peter's great profession of faith, he announces that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the hands of the elders, the chief priest and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised. After correcting Peter's protest, Jesus announces the three conditions for Christian discipleship: deny yourself, take up your cross, and follow me.

Some time ago when I was in Nigeria, there was this advertisement on the television by one of the "new generation" Churches. It said in part, "Come to Eagle's Square. As soon as you step into that square, all your problems will vanish." I asked myself what was being advertised. Was it a religion, the Christian religion or rather a commercial product, "a pain killer", like Panadol or Aleve? "Take two Panadol tablets and your headache will vanish at once."

That was not how Jesus advertised Christianity. Our Gospel reading today tells us how Jesus advertised Christianity: "If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it."

It follows that the cross is part and parcel of the Christian religion. A cross-less Christianity does not exist; it has not yet been invented. If it were possible to be a Christian without carrying the cross, Jesus would most certainly have shown us how. Rather he himself carried his own cross all the way to Calvary. He drank the cup of suffering to the dregs, and invited his followers to take up their own cross and follow him on that same road. That road led to his resurrection and glorification. The same road will lead to our own resurrection and glorification. No other road will lead us there.

The Gospel of Christ is like a coin with two sides: the cross and the crown. If we try to embrace one side, the glorious side, and reject the other, the suffering side, we falsify the Gospel. The same Jesus who said, "Come to me, all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest" also said "If anyone wants to become a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it."

Do we come to Jesus to be freed from our burdens or do we come to Jesus to take on the cross?

*Remain Blessed,
 Father Tony*
