Parish News

Parish Office Hours This Week for Meetings & Trainings:

Wednesday, January 18—the offices will close at 11:15

Thursday, January 19—the offices will close at 10:45

Year-End Contribution Statements are available at the back of church beginning this weekend. Save the parish the cost of postage—pick yours up today!

SG Hospitality this Weekend will be hosted by the Liturgy Committee. Stop after Mass to say hello to fellow parishioners and have a snack.

A Bake Sale at SG after Masses the Weekend of January 21 & 22 will be sponsored by Caring Hearts and Hands. Caring Hearts and Hands is an outreach group working to stay connected with our homebound parishioners and those in assisted living or nursing homes through cards, gifts, and visits. They also send mailings several times throughout the year to young adult parishioners serving in the military. In addition, they help others through donations to area non-profits. Support SG Caring Hearts and Hands by supporting the bake sale. Thank you!

Bible Study at Holy Trinity on Tuesdays at 9am has started I Chronicles. I Chronicles covers some of the same ground as Kings. I Chronicles is concerned with David and God's viewpoint of the struggling nation of Israel. I Chronicles may be a convenient starting point for anyone who is interested in joining the group. This is a nonintrusive type of Bible Study with participation as much or as little as you want.

HT Christian Women Calendars: If you have any calendars that you have not turned in yet, please do. Thank you to everyone that sold and bought them. It was another successful year. Good luck to everyone!

Help Us Free Up Storage Space—Free Baskets: These baskets are in the hall at Holy Trinity for the taking. They were used for the silent auction of the Perch Fry and are no longer needed. Help yourself.

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: John the Baptist had a central role during Advent; as we move on to Ordinary Time, he reminds us often that he is not the main character. In this gospel he cedes the stage to Jesus, who is beginning his active ministry. In one last testimony, he reminds us of the prophecies we heard during Advent and recounts the baptism of Jesus. He's been saying all along that he's not the real deal; here he steps aside for this one who ranks ahead of him. John also gives us the line we hear before Communion at every Mass: "Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." Blessed are we who are called to the supper of this Lamb. May we join with John in bearing witness to the one we encounter there.

To Experience: There will be a lot of light imagery in the coming weeks; this week is about becoming a light for others. For those of us in the Northern Hemisphere, this echoes the slow but sure lengthening of days we see in the early months of the year (while in the southern half of the world, these light images can serve as reassurance as days begin to grow shorter).

Hear to Serve...

PATIENCE IS A VIRTUE

Do you remember these words of St Paul; "Love is patient, love is kind, love does not seek its own interests, love is not quick tempered, love bears all things, believes in all things, hopes in all things, and endures all things?" These words taken from St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians is a popular choice for young couples on their wedding day because they set the tone for how they hope their love grows for each other. Related to this is today's Psalm 40. The psalmist starts out with, "I have waited, waited for the Lord." How many times have we done the opposite of what St. Paul tells us? How many times have we lost patience with the people we love? How many times have we lost our patience with the Lord?

There have been too many times in my life when my patience has been nonexistent with my loved ones and with others. I wanted to wait for no one. I wanted people to respond immediately. There also have been times I expected God to be quicker in His response to my prayers and requests.

Even though we may have to wait, remember that God is never far away from us. God's love is always there for us because we hear that God has stooped down and heard our cry. But like any good parent, God doesn't always give us what we ask for on our timetable. Like any good parent, God can see beyond the immediate problem, God can see the real problem and the real solution. We are like little children who can only see what is immediately around us.

When God does act, He gives us a lasting joy. "He put a new song in my mouth." So often we fall victim to temporary happiness, the joy that the world offers us. As I think back on my life I can remember all the times I thought I would find lasting happiness in material things and in doing things my way. I remember all the times it didn't last, and I was left not with a new song, but a bitter taste in my mouth.

We have to realize that our true happiness lies in our obedience to God and His ways. As we hear, "To do Your will, O' God is my delight." This is what St. Paul re-confirms as he tells us, "Love does not seek its own interest. True love is not a random act. True love is a willful act. This is what God has done for us. It was God's willful act when the Word was made Flesh so we could be saved from our sins.

This willful act of true love is what we must reciprocate. This means that to love God we must give up our pride and our selfishness. We must give up our attitude of my will be done, and remember it is, "Thy Will Be done." When we do this, we can then proclaim, "Here I am Lord, I come to do your will." It is then that love can endure all things, and not wither and die.

Let us take to heart the words of Psalm 40 and the words of St. Paul and allow them to set the tone for our lives. Let us remember that Love is patient and let us seek God's will and not our own so that our love can bear all things and put a new song of joy in our mouths.

*Viva Christo Rey,
 Deacon Larry*
