Parish News

Year-End Contribution Statements are available at the back of church. Save the parish the cost of postage—pick yours up this weekend!

Palm Collection Boxes will be available at the church entrances February 4—19 to collect last year's palms.

SG Hospitality is looking for hosts for February and throughout the remainder of the year. Hospitality is the second full weekend of each month. You only need to bring the snacks, all else is provided. Sign up in the back of church or call Melissa at 773-3270. Thank you!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! St. Gregory Caring Hearts & Hands would love to thank all who supported their successful bake sale and outreach efforts!

Thanks a BUNCH!

A Big Thanks to Schnell Electric for the recent installation of new lights on the north side of church. The north lot and church entrance are so well lit and much safer! Thank you!

Thank You to everyone who remembered me in their prayers through my surgery and now with my recovery. Thank you for the many cards, gifts, meals, and the visits. I appreciate it very much.

Thank You,
Lois Albright

Christian Women meeting is Feb. 5, 9am at HT. All women are welcome. Meeting hosts are Joleen Bonde and Jane Linzmeier.

Volunteers Needed: to provide Soup and Bread on Fridays of Lent at Holy Trinity. Call the parish office to sign up.

A Journey of Faith

Rite of Acceptance in the Order of Catechumens

On Sunday, Holy Trinity Parish accepts Sullivan, Brielle, and Eila Koenig, children of David and Al-ecia Koenig, into the Order of Catechumens. They will be presented with Bibles as a gift from the parish. Please pray for these children as they continue to prepare for their Baptism, Confirmation, and First Communion at this year's Easter Vigil.

To make a One by One payment toward your pledge, please mail it to the following address ...

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: When hashtags started becoming popular on social media, the hashtag "blessed" quickly turned sarcastic. It is used most often to make fun of the few who do use it sincerely because it seems that they are often those who habitually overshare or who attribute their life's luxuries to the blessing of God. We know, deep down, that having pretty, Instagrammable things is not actually a sign of God's blessing. Here, Jesus also turns around what "blessed" means, but he does it in all sincerity. He affirms that those who practice hard spiritual disciplines, whose lives may not appear "blessed" in an earthly sense, are in fact those favored by God. Jesus reminds us that what we see is not always the truth of the matter; God is up to something greater than that which we can perceive.

To Experience: We know that God's values are not our own; we hear this repeatedly in Scripture. But, saturated in a culture that values other things, we forget very easily. We put our time and attention into gathering money and security and social capital, even when we know this is not what Jesus asks of us. Consider the Beatitudes this week and how God might be using them to invite you into letting go of one of these false values.

February 2—The Presentation of the Lord or Candlemas

It is the last day we hear of Jesus as an infant (40 days after his birth) as he is being presented in the temple by his parents. The offering of Jesus is the beginning of his earthly ministry for His Heavenly Father. The candles used in the church throughout the year will be blessed. These candles are to remind us that Jesus is the light of the world. You are invited to bring candles from home to be blessed.

February 3—Feast of St. Blaise (Blessing of Throats)

St. Blaise, a doctor, was said to have cured a young boy with a fish bone stuck in his throat. It was believed that St. Blaise could cure most illnesses, especially those of the throat. Parishioners desiring a blessing of their throats proceed to the front of the church where two blessed candles, tied with a red ribbon, are held in the form of an X against the neck. The red ribbon represents the blood of martyrs, and the candles held in the shape of an "X" represent the martyrdom of another saint, St. Andrew, who according to tradition was crucified on an X-shaped cross. Not only are we freed from disease but from everything keeping us from God.

Year of Mary
October 1, 2022 to December 8, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In this Sunday's Gospel, we hear the familiar words of the Beatitudes. These enigmatic proverbs reveal Jesus' plan for our happiness. Aristotle states that happiness is what all people seek, but he finds it difficult to describe happiness. In seeking happiness, people often try to find it in possessions, financial security, honor and esteem, power or influence over others. The wisdom of Aristotle, the inquiry of modern psychology, and the experience of many people all agree that these pursuits do not lead to greater happiness.

Jesus offers a plan for happiness that does not seek riches, honors, or power. He says, rather, that it is the poor, the lowly and the meek that will be truly blessed and happy.

We don't expect this.

Very few people would seek poverty, lowliness and humility as a path towards happiness. Jesus is not just speculating about happiness. He is not offering an untested theory. Jesus lives the beatitudes, and by the demonstration of his life, he shows us that the path of the beatitudes is the surest way to happiness.

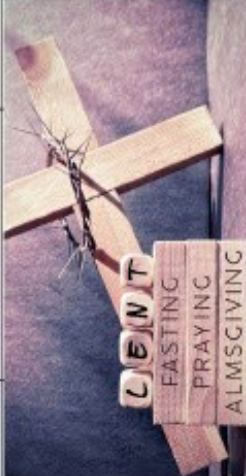

"Blessed are the poor..." What does it mean to be poor? The poor do not have the resources to provide for their own needs. The poor depend upon others. The saintly, now deceased, archbishop of Chicago, Francis Cardinal George, said that the poor cannot afford their own necessities, but even more so, the poor cannot afford any illusions about their lives.

A person who lives the beatitudes has no illusions about their lives. They accept that their own efforts fall short of providing for what the human heart truly seeks. They know that they have little control over the course of their lives. This realization overwhelms many in our world today. But a person who lives the beatitudes is not defeated.

Jesus looked toward His Father. He knew that His Father, who provided for the flowers of the field and the birds of the air, would also provide for Him. A man or a woman of the beatitudes does not stop at their poverty. Rather, when all the illusions of life are stripped away, then they begin to trust. Imitating Jesus, they lift their eyes toward their Father in heaven, and with a grace-filled trust they can pray "...give us this day our daily bread..." They believe that God can provide for them, since even God's weakness is stronger than human strength, and even God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom (see 1 Corinthians 1:25).

*Blessings,
Father Bill*
