St. Joseph Icon to Visit HT & SG Parishes April 11—17

Every few years, the Knights of Columbus selects an icon of a saint whose patronage is particularly inspiring to Knights and their communities. Each jurisdiction receives an icon which travels from council to council and serve as the centerpieces for prayer services in parishes throughout the Order.

The St. Joseph icon will be displayed at the daily and weekend Masses from April 11—April 17. A closing Prayer Service will be held 6pm on Monday, April 17 at St. Gregory. At the conclusion of the service, the icon will be passed to members of another Knights of Columbus council.

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: John's empty tomb narrative is mysterious. We do not see Jesus here, and not even the angel of the Synoptics reassures these witnesses about what is happening. There are only oblique signs: a moved stone, burial cloths, and no body. The gospel ends without understanding and there is still a journey ahead of coming to understand what God has done here. Our Easter joy is not always immediate; we cannot start it on demand. But God remains with us in the journey of coming to share in this joy more fully.

1. We know so well how this story ends, but try to put yourself in the place of Mary Magdalene or one of the disciples as they put the pieces together for the first time. What would you be thinking and feeling as this absolutely unthinkable thing unfolds?
2. Like the characters of this gospel, we also often encounter the risen Christ in oblique signs and symbols, things that are easy to overlook in all our busyness. What in your life might be an overlooked symbol of resurrection?
3. Where and how do you encounter the risen Christ? What emotions does it evoke in you? How does he send you forth to witness to his presence?

Year of Mary
 October 1, 2022 to December 8, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Have you ever attended the Easter Vigil? Due to its length and late hour many Catholics will go their entire life without attending. And they are missing out. When this liturgy is celebrated well, the duration hardly matters, but the heart is greatly moved.

The Easter Vigil liturgy always begins in the dark. No lights are left on in the church. No candles are lit. Ideally it begins outside the church (although the unpredictable Wisconsin spring weather often prevents this). In that darkness, a fire is lit. The fire cuts the darkness. From the fire, the Easter candle is lit, and carried into the empty, cold, and dark church greeted with the triumphal song: "The Light of Christ!"

Have you ever seen a single candle burning in the midst of a dark room? Although that flame seems small, it throws off an impressive amount of light. Good Friday represents the pinnacle of human darkness. It shows the brutality of the result of sin: the murder of the Lord on the Cross. Easter Vigil shows God's response to that darkness. The light enters into the cold barren darkness. The light conquers that darkness. Even the most extreme human darkness cannot extinguish the Light of Christ.

This should encourage us. It should bring us hope. There is not a darkness so opaque that the light will not triumph.

"The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness cannot overcome it" (John 1:5).

But the light does not remain only with the Easter candle. As the deacon carries the candle further into the dark church, and as the "Light of Christ" continues to be proclaimed, the flame of that candle is shared among those gathered. They receive the light from the candle. "A fire into many flames divided, yet never dimmed by sharing its light..." (from the Easter Exultet). This sharing of the light represents Christ sharing his victory with us. As he overcame the darkness of Good Friday by the Resurrection, he shares the power to overcome all darkness to those who believe in him. And the light grows even brighter by being shared with us.

"Therefore, O Lord, we pray you that this candle, hallowed to the honor of your name, may persevere undimmed, to overcome the darkness of this night... May this flame be found still burning by the Morning Star: the one Morning Star who never sets, Christ your Son, who, coming back from death's domain, has shed his peaceful light on humanity, and lives and reigns forever and ever" (also from the Easter Exultet).

May the light of Christ ever burn brightly in your heart and life, that you may always have the confident faith and hope that there is no darkness, however deep, that can extinguish the flame of faith given to you by the Risen Christ.

*Happy and Blessed Easter,
 Father Bill*

St. Joseph—
Whom God Chose to Protect, Defend, & Raise the Most Precious of His Gifts to Humanity

St. Joseph carried out his mission of raising, guarding, and preparing Christ quietly, courageously, and faithfully. For that work, St. Joseph was rewarded—not with seeing the fruits of his labor in this life, but with the incomparable prize of glory in heaven.

In the first year of his pontificate, Pope Francis received the Order's Board of Directors in a private audience, during which the Holy Father said, "I commend all of you in a special way to the intercession of St. Joseph, the protector of the Holy Family of Nazareth, who is an admirable model of those manly virtues of quiet strength, integrity, and fidelity ..."

We can all turn in prayer to St. Joseph. We give thanks to God for the gift of his fatherly example, and we ask St. Joseph to be a father to us. Along the way, may we also grow in our own imitation of St. Joseph's quiet strength, integrity, and fidelity.
