Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: This Easter Encounter is a beloved story, and with good reason. It transitions us from the disciples' encounters with the risen Christ to our ongoing encounters with Christ in the Mass. Their hearts burn within them as he speaks to them about Scripture, a forerunner to our Liturgy of the Word, when we hear Scripture opened for us and meet Jesus alive and speaking to us there. Then they recognize him in the breaking of the bread, which is how he will remain with them—and us—long beyond his ascension into heaven. For us, too, Mass serves as a point of encounter in the midst of our lifelong journey. Jesus chooses to be with us and walk with us, and while we might not always recognize him, we are never left alone.

To Experience: We may be tempted to think of the disciples as extremely privileged to have encountered the Risen Christ so immediately. They certainly are, but so are we, who continue to encounter Jesus at every Mass as he humbly comes to be with us, fully and completely, in the Scriptures and Eucharist we received at every Mass.

1. What is your experience of encountering Jesus in the Eucharist? What might help you renew your eucharistic practice as an encounter with the risen Christ?
2. The first reading shows a courageous Peter preaching the truth of Christ's life and making up for his cowardly denial at the passion. How might you be called to greater courage in witnessing to what you know to be true about Jesus?
3. The image of journeying or pathways is a common one for the life of faith. Reflect on your own journey so far; how far have you encountered Christ along the way?

Bible Study on Romans Starting April 25 at 8:45 am Holy Trinity Parish Hall

Join us for an engaging, informative, and thought-provoking nine lecture series by Dr. Scott Hahn, as well as Dr. John Bergsma and Dr. Brant Pitre. Walk chapter by chapter through the biblical book that most scholars consider Paul's greatest theological masterpiece. Along the way, you'll come to a deeper understanding of the Church's teachings on justification, faith and works, spiritual fatherhood, the role of Israel in salvation history, baptism, the dignity of the body, the life of charity, and more. The study will start at 8:45am on Tuesday mornings, following the 8am Mass at Holy Trinity. Sessions will last a little over an hour. In preparation: please read Romans Chapter 1.

Year of Mary
October 1, 2022 to December 8, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Peace be with you and Happy Easter!

Today's Gospel is the famous account of the disciples' walk to Emmaus. Like every passage of the Gospels, there are a number of layers of meaning here. I return regularly to this passage in my prayer, and the Lord always draws me into another layer of meaning.

To open up this passage, notice how it can be divided into two parts. First, we are walking with the two disciples and the unknown stranger. This stranger, who is Jesus, although the disciples do not recognize him, is opening up the scriptures "beginning with Moses and all the prophets," so that they might better understand. Second, the disciples invite the stranger to stay with them for dinner. As was the custom at that time, the guest is asked to offer the blessing and break the bread. At the moment, the disciples recognize Jesus, who is living and not dead, but Jesus mysteriously vanishes from their sight.

From the time of the early Christians up until today, this passage was seen as a pattern for celebrating the Eucharist. Like the disciples on the way, we first encounter Jesus through the Word of God. We call this the "Liturgy of the Word." Since, as St. Paul writes to Timothy, "All scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching ... that the man of God may be complete, and equipped for every good work" (see 2 Timothy 3:16-17). The Catholic Church has thoughtfully arranged selections of readings from both the Old and New Testaments over a three year cycle to ensure that the faithful have a wide exposure to the Word of God.

At the celebration of the Eucharist, we first encounter Jesus as the Word of God.

For the second part of the celebration of the Eucharist, notice what Jesus does in today's Gospel, "while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessings, broke it, and gave it to them..." What do these words sound like? It is more than a simple table blessing. These words recall Jesus' words and actions at the Last Supper. There while he was at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "take this all of you and eat of it, for THIS IS MY BODY." Luke is making a connection between what Jesus is doing here in Emmaus and what he did with the disciples in the Upper Room at the Last Supper.

We believe that Jesus is truly and substantially present in the Eucharist. For the early Christians, the celebration of the Eucharist was referred to as "the breaking of the bread." So while Jesus vanishes from their sight, he does not leave them. He is still with them, since the bread that was broken is no ordinary bread. The bread that was broken is the Eucharist. Even the disciples make reference to this by saying that "he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread."

Each Sunday, Jesus meets us on our road, on our journey. He approaches us through the proclamation of his Holy Word and through "the breaking of the bread" - through his real and substantial presence in the Eucharist. My prayer for you is that like the disciples, your eyes may be opened, that you might recognize his presence in your life, and that your hearts may burn within you.

*Easter blessings to you,
 Father Bill*
