Parish News

The Rosary will be prayed every Tuesday at 6pm at SG from May through October.

Is the Mass Intention for Your Loved One? We invite you to present the gifts at offertory. The gift bearers represent the entire parish as we return to God a small part of the many blessings that He has given to us. What a wonderful way to express thanks and joy to God by bearing these gifts! Call the parish office during the week or speak to an usher before Mass to fulfill the role of gift bearers.

Thank You to All the Liturgical Ministers who took time from your busy schedules to attend one of the recent trainings. We are extremely grateful for your willingness to serve at Masses! Thank you!

Thank You to the Clean-up & Landscaping Crew at Holy Trinity of Lois & Dennis Albright, Dennis Graf, Tom Knier, Dale Post, Bob Salm, & Grace Salm. The stones and edging around the shed will help with erosion control. Thank you!

Thank You!

Holy Trinity Parishioners: Do you have young children and teens living at home? If so, mark your calendars for May 21! Come, get to know some of the other families in our parish. The Christian Women are planning for a Family Fun Day in honor of St. Isidore the Farmer at no cost to your family. Contact Danielle Faust for questions, 920-773-0026.

Volunteers Needed to clean Rectory windows. Monday, May 22 at 9am. Members from both parishes welcome. The more hands, the merrier!

Altar Server Training Reschedule

Training is for all current servers and anyone interested in becoming a server. Students and adults from either parish are welcome.

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: This gospel echoes the themes of last week as Jesus is preparing his disciples to live without him for a time, or at least without the bodily presence they have come to know and which will depart earth at the ascension. This week adds a foreshadowing of the upcoming Pentecost feast; Jesus' presence will remain in the Holy Spirit, who will accompany the disciples and the church beyond their lifetime in their remaining work on earth. For us, too, the Holy Spirit is a promised companion, providing continuity with these earliest of Jesus' followers. Like the disciples, we are not left alone in the struggle.

To Experience: There have always been and will always be struggles that accompany a life of faith, and we might wonder why Jesus does not make his presence more visible and obvious to us and to those who would criticize us. But God is not about "winning" in the way we would sometimes choose; the "win" here is not that we will never struggle or suffer but that we will never be left alone in our struggles.

1. Reflect on your confirmation; what do you remember of that day?
2. How do you experience the Holy Spirit's promised presence in your life?
3. The gifts of the Spirit are wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. Which of these do you need to increase in order to meet your current challenges in life?

Year of Mary
October 1, 2022 to December 8, 2023

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

He is risen! He has truly Risen!
 Alleluia! Peace be with you! In today's Gospel, Jesus gives us a promise, "I will not leave you orphans." Jesus keeps this promise by making us a part of his family through the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Jesus gives us a father.

Saint Paul shared this reality with the early Christians: "For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, 'Abba! Father!'" (Romans 8:15-16). Or: "And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, 'Abba, Father!'" (Galatians 4:6).

This means that like any father, God has given us life. In response to the gift of life, we owe Him acts of thanksgiving and praise. And God is not an absentee father, but continues to nurture and guide us. He provides for us. So in moments of need, we should look towards Him to provide for our spiritual and material needs. In times of confusion, we should look towards Him to guide us.

Reflecting on our relationship with God as our Father, we need to also examine ourselves: Do we live in a way that gives honor and glory to God? By our words and actions, can others see "a family resemblance" between God and us, who are his children? A father delights in looking upon his children and seeing that they have the same eye color or similar shaped ears. But a father brims with honor when he see that his children do not share a mere physical resemblance to him, but share the same virtues, values, and honor with which he lived his life, and hoped to pass to his children.

Jesus gives us a mother.

In the Gospel of John, Jesus looked down from upon his cross. He saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved, and said "behold, your mother" (see John 19:26-27). From the earliest days of the Church, this passage has been understood to mean that Jesus was giving us his own mother to be our mother in the order of grace. Mothers nurture and nourish. During the nine months of pregnancy a child draws its life from the blood of the mother. As the mother holds her child as she nurses him, can she not say, "Behold, this is of my body, and I give it to you?" While fathers can certainly be tender, tenderness is usually the privilege domain of a mother. The long experience of the church shows us that Mary continues to nurture and nourish her children. She encourages and strengthens us to grow stronger in faith. She brings us closer to Jesus.

If you want your faith to grow stronger, and if you want a personal relationship with Jesus, begin a devotion to Mary.

Blessings,
Fr. Bill

Second Collection: May 20 & 21 Home Missions—Our Own Needs "Strengthening the Church at Home"

- Black and Indian Missions exists to build Christian communities among the Native American, African American and Alaskan Native people. Every penny collected is distributed as diocesan grants to support and strengthen evangelization programs in the United States. Annually, in our Diocese, we receive grants to assist our parishes in Neopit and Keshena with outreach, education, and service to the people of the Menominee Indian Tribe.
- The Catholic Communications Campaign modernizes how the church communicates the joy of the Gospel nationwide and locally. Half of all funds collected for the CCC remain in our diocese to support local communication efforts. This collection connects people to the Gospel message.
- The Catholic University of America is the National University of the Catholic Church. Your gift enables the University to prepare the next generation of Catholic leadership, both religious and lay. Every donated dollar supports scholarships to assist financially deserving students in completing their education. Alumni include 19 Cardinals, 58 Bishops and over 12,400 priests.
- The Catholic Home Missions assists 40% of dioceses in the United States. The fragile financial situations, poverty, vast distances, difficult terrain, lack of priests significantly affects the mission diocese ability to offer basic pastoral needs. Home Missions provides financial assistance for Mass, the sacraments and faith formation.

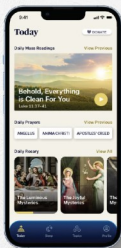

Please use the enclosed envelope to designate where your gift should be applied. Thank you for your kindness!
