Free Taco Dinner August 16, 5:30-6:30pm, Back to School Blessing offered at 6pm at Holy Trinity. See insert for more details.

Missionary Cooperation Plan Collection (Visiting Missionary Appeal) August 12 & 13

Each year the Diocese of Green Bay receives over 300 applications from mission organizations to participate in this program; of these, 38 groups are invited. In our Diocese, receipts from all the parishes are pooled and then divided equally among these selected groups. We use this fair-share system to enable our missionary speakers to go to less populated parishes in our Diocese without fear to receiving less income. For this reason, we ask that you write your check to your parish, not to the mission appeal speaker or organization they represent. Thank you for your support & prayers for the Missions.

Bulletin Deadline With the change of summer office hours, bulletin submissions must be received the Tuesday two weeks prior to the date of print.

August 26 & 27 Bulletin
Submission Deadline is Tuesday, Aug 15

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: Peter's emotional trajectory is relatable here; it shows us that having faith is never a one-and-done proposition. His bravado seems to be rewarded when he encounters new fears, it is as if he never had courage at all. For us, too, the journey of faith is circuitous; it brings moments of courage and confidence as well as moments of doubt and distress. We sometimes find that our most confident moments precede a new experience that throws off everything we thought we knew. All the while, though, Jesus is with us. He goes before us, walking on the water and making it safe; and he stands prepared to catch us when our resolve falters.

To Experience: There is a group of seabirds called petrels and they earned St. Peter as their eponym because they move their feet in such a way that they appear to walk on water as they feed. Many of our plants and animals were named by people who saw God powerfully present in the natural world. This gospel with its mighty weather imagery and the first reading with its tiny whisper can serve as reminders to pay attention to God's presence in all we encounter—nature, relationships, and even our own gifts.

1. Elijah finds God present not in the loud powers of the natural world but in a tiny whispering sound, one that would be easy to overlook where he is not paying attention. What small, gentle ways might God be present in your life? Where could God be calling you to pay closer attention?
2. While Peter's faith falters in this story, he also shows another level of faith: when he starts to sink, he does not turn back to the boat. His immediate reaction is to call out to Jesus for help. When you find your faith faltering, how do you respond? Do you trust Jesus to bolster your efforts when they are not enough?

Year of Mary

"Be still and know that I am God"
Psalm 46:10

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Peace be with you. Today's first reading is one of my favorite readings from the Old Testament. The Prophet Elijah is at Mount Horeb. It took him forty days to walk there. He was desiring to talk with God. Now he was waiting for God to speak. He received word that God would be passing by the mountain, so Elijah prepared himself.

The mountain was shaken with a storm so strong that it crushed rocks. This was followed by an earthquake, and later a fire. Elijah recognized that God was not speaking through any of these fearsome manifestations. Rather, it was only when he heard "a tiny whispering sound" (1 Kings 19:12) that Elijah went to the mouth of the cave to speak with God.

This story illustrates the power of silence. How easy would it be to smother the tiny whispering sound in which we can hear the voice of God?

Many Christians have found the experience of silent retreats to be life altering experiences. These retreats can vary in length from three days up to a thirty-day silent retreat. Can you imagine being silent for thirty days? These retreats follow a general pattern: at first it is difficult to cultivate the silence necessary to pray. One can turn off the music, and silence their phone, but the mind can be frenetic with thoughts and worries.

As the mind quiets down, there is a silence that settles over one's heart. In my experience of silent retreats, this silence is almost tactile. It is restful, but can feel empty and to be honest, even boring. At this point there is a great temptation to move, to do something to fill the silence. But at this point it is important to wait.

Like Elijah, who waited for God in the cave, we need to let the storms of our life settle before we can hear how God speaks to us. If we have the persistence to wait in silence, we soon experience that God does in fact speak to us. The silence is not empty, but rather it is filled with God.

We do not need to go on a retreat to experience the benefits of silence. One can take time for silence each day, perhaps twenty minutes. When the heart is in the habit of being silent for a period of time each day, it gets in the habit of stilling the mind and opening the heart to be attentive to the presence of God and to hear his voice.

St. Mother Teresa leaves us with these words, "The fruit of silence is prayer, the fruit of prayer is faith, the fruit of faith is love, the fruit of love is service, and the fruit of service is peace."

Blessings,
Fr. Bill

The Story of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

On November 1, 1950, Pope Pius XII defined the Assumption of Mary to be a dogma of faith: "We pronounce, declare and define it to be a divinely revealed dogma that the immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul to heavenly glory." The pope proclaimed this dogma only after a broad consultation of bishops, theologians and laity. There were few dissenting voices. What the pope solemnly declared was already a common belief in the Catholic Church.

We find homilies on the Assumption going back to the sixth century. In following centuries, the Eastern Churches held steadily to the doctrine, but some authors in the West were hesitant. However by the 13th century there was universal agreement. The feast was celebrated under various names—Commemoration, Dormition, Passing, Assumption—from at least the fifth or sixth century. Today it is celebrated as a solemnity.

Scripture does not give an account of Mary's assumption into heaven. Nevertheless, Revelation 12 speaks of a woman who is caught up in the battle between good and evil. Many see this woman as God's people. Since Mary best embodies the people of both Old and New Testaments, her assumption can be seen as an exemplification of the woman's victory.

Furthermore, in 1 Corinthians 15:20, Paul speaks of Christ's resurrection as the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

Since Mary is closely associated with all the mysteries of Jesus' life, it is not surprising that the Holy Spirit has led the Church to believe in Mary's share in his glorification. So close was she to Jesus on earth, she must be with him body and soul in heaven.
