Parish News

It's Annual Parish Meeting Time!

Holy Trinity—Sunday, October 15 Annual Meeting & Breakfast 9am

St. Gregory—Tuesday, October 17 Annual Meeting

Plan to attend—it's a great opportunity to learn more about what is happening in your parish and to receive answers to your questions. Annual Reports for each parish are available at church and the parish offices.

HT & SG Eucharistic Minister Training An email has been sent regarding a Liturgical Ministry Training for current parish ministers in the areas of Eucharistic Ministers. The training on November 9, led by diocesan staff, is at St. Francis of Assisi, Manitowoc, Grand Ave Site, and also open to those who wish to begin volunteering in the ministry. The training is 1 1/2 hours in length. Unlike other lay liturgical ministers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are to be commissioned for this ministry by the Bishop. This commissioning is preceded by proper and sufficient spiritual, theological, and practical preparation to fulfill their role with knowledge and reverence. Contact the office if you are in need of the registration link or need assistance to register.

SG Fall Feast Raffle Tickets Extra raffle tickets are now available at the back of church, in addition to the parish office. Pick up additional tickets to sell to family, friends, co-workers, and everyone you meet.

SG & HT Shoeboxes Thank you for the great response! See the Box of Love, Box of Joy information in today's bulletin. Pick up a box at church and return it before October 28.

Thank You to the parishioners that donated apples and the ladies that helped to make 5 1/2 ice cream pails of applesauce. We will need 20 more ice cream pails for the perch fry.

Christian Women 2024 Calendars will be ready to pick up at the back of church. We need the help of all our parish members to make it a success again this year. Thank You!

Bulletin Deadline Bulletin submissions must be received the Tuesday two weeks prior to the date of print.

October 21 & 22 Bulletin Submission Deadline is Tuesday, October 10

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: The image of God as a vineyard keeper continues this week, and the harvest imagery grows stronger as the Northern Hemisphere enters more firmly into fall. To Jesus' audience, this parable would have been head scratchingly mysterious, but for those of us who know the rest of Jesus' story, it foreshadows the passion rather chillingly. But good news still prevails. God's life-giving and saving work does not end when human wickedness tries to stand in its way. Amidst all the pain and brokenness and suffering of this sin-burdened world, God finds ways to continue to give life and bear fruit. God is persistent, not only in carrying out God's plans but also in loving us. God wins and will have final victory, even when it is not apparent. And because God is always on our side, this is very good news.

To Experience: This is a parable where it can be hard to identify strongly with any characters. Were it not for Jesus' direct second-person "the kingdom of God will be taken away from you," we might not know what we are supposed to take from it. But yes, even we are prone to rejection of God's messengers and even God's Son. But God never stops trying to reach us, determined to make us partners in bringing forth life.

1. What fruit is God calling you to bear in your life? What keeps you from fully producing this fruit?
2. Are there "stones" in your life you might inadvertently be rejecting? In other words, are there things in your life that God might be building with in unexpected ways? People you overlook? Qualities you dislike about yourself?
3. The second reading reminds us that God is a God of peace; peace is what God wants for us. Where do you need God's peace in your life?

Year of Mary
October 1, 2022 to December 8, 2023

"Go and fear nothing, I will help you."
 the Queen of Heaven speaking to Adele Brise
 October 9, 1859

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I hope that all of you are aware that the only Church approved apparition of Mary in the United States is located in our diocese. In October 1859, Mary, under the title of the Queen of Heaven, appeared to Adele Brise, a young Belgian immigrant.

Roughly a year ago, I recounted the details of how Mary appeared to Adele, and the message that she gave to her. I also recalled that in the 164 years since the apparition, there have been numerous miracles associated with the shrine of Our Lady of Champion.

This year, I would like to relate the most famous miracle associated with the Shrine. Two historic fires occurred on October 8, 1871. The more famous of the two was the Chicago fire. However, the Peshtigo Fire was responsible for more deaths and was more destructive. Due to the high winds and dry grounds, the fire quickly became a storm of fire and roared like a tornado right toward the Shrine's grounds.

Desperate for help, people from the surrounding countryside fled to the Chapel where Adele and her companions were praying for Mary's protection. Lifting the statue of Mary, those there that night processed around the sanctuary, praying the Rosary and singing hymns to Jesus and the Blessed Mother. When the wind and fire threatened suffocation, they would turn in another direction to pray. Early the next morning, a steady rain came and extinguished the flames of the fire.

Although the fire charred the outside of the Shrine's fence, it had not harmed the grounds. However, the area surrounding the grounds was destroyed, and the only livestock to survive were the cattle the farmers led to the chapel. While many deeper wells in the area went dry, the chapel's shallow well gave the cattle enough water to survive the heat.

In short, Mary protected all those who sought refuge in Her protection.

This miracle should not only help to edify us, but encourage us that in times of danger and temptation, we can and should seek Mary's intercession. Just as she protected all who sought refuge on the grounds of the Shrine, she will also protect those who go to her for protection.

Blessings,

Fr. Bill

This Week on FORMED ...

John XXIII: The Pope of Peace

This movie tells the life story of John XXIII from his youth through his young priesthood, episcopacy, life as cardinal, and eventually his life as pope. Elected supposedly as an "interim Pope" who would just keep the status quo and listen to the advisers around him, John XXIII proved to be his own man when he surprised the Church and world by calling for the Second Vatican Council.
