Parish News

Offices will be closed Monday, May 27 in observance of Memorial Day.

Memorial Day Masses are 8:00am at Holy Trinity Cemetery; 10:00am at St. Gregory

Pray the Rosary The rosary will be prayed 6pm every Tuesday at St. Gregory Parish from May through October. Join us any Tuesday night.

SG Parishioner Daisy Burkart passed away May 12. May God grant her eternal rest and be with her family at this difficult time. On behalf of our parish communities, we offer our prayers and condolences to Daisy's family. A Mass of Christian Burial took place this week.

SG Flower Garden The beautiful flower gardens are such a welcoming sight to all who come to our church. The large garden is divided into smaller plots which have been cared for by parishioner volunteers. Recently, several plots have been become available and are in need of caretakers. It's a great place to serve God and our Blessed Mother! Contact Greg Stebnitz or Dorothy Baumann if you are interested in caring for one of the available spaces.

Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: The gift of the Spirit at Pentecost completes and concludes the Easter season. The resurrection of Christ affirmed that his love and presence endure beyond death; the sending of the Spirit affirms that they also endure beyond the visible, physical presence that his disciples enjoyed. This same Spirit has been present throughout Jesus' life. It is the same Spirit that came upon Mary at the annunciation; it is the same Spirit that drove Jesus into the desert to pray. It is a Spirit that accompanies and guides and sustains Jesus throughout his ministry; it is the same Spirit that accompanies and guides and sustains us as we strive to continue Jesus' ministry on earth. This is a Spirit that brings about unity, dissolving the many barriers that divide us.

To Experience: We humans often have a hard time understanding how vast God's love really is. We are comfortable with the boundaries we draw between us, content to rest in our small worlds of people like us. But Jesus insists on greater unity than that. At Pentecost, the Holy Spirit transcends the very language barriers that would keep Jesus' gospel from being heard. Jesus' message and Jesus' saving work are for all, and it is not for us to exclude people from them.

1. How do you see the Holy Spirit present in the church and in the world today?
2. What obstacles hinder unity in your community? How might you cooperate with the Holy Spirit to overcome these obstacles?
3. The second reading names the fruit of the Spirit as "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control." How have you experienced these this Easter season? How do they reveal the Spirit's presence to you?

*"For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words."
Romans 8:25b (ESV)*

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today the Church celebrates the feast of Pentecost, and I will also conclude my reflections on the Rosary.

"The Spirit himself intercedes for us..." Prayer is not primarily dependent on our effort. Prayer is primarily the work of the Holy Spirit. This is certainly true when we pray during Mass, but it is also true in our personal prayers, especially the Rosary. When prayer seems dry or dull, it is important to pause, and ask oneself, "Am I letting the Spirit lead me in my prayer?" The Spirit can be "a low whisper," like it was for the Prophet Elijah (see 1 Kings 19:9-18), or "a mighty rushing wind" (see today's first reading, Acts 2:1-4). In either case, the presence of the Holy Spirit gives power to our prayer.

This is modeled by the Blessed Virgin Mary. We see in Mary that her greatest accomplishments were not done by her own effort. Rather, she accomplished the most by being both receptive and responsive to the promptings of the Holy Spirit. By adopting the same attitude of being receptive and responsive to the presence and promptings of the Holy Spirit, the Rosary becomes a powerful prayer.

To put this into practice, take a long pause before beginning the Rosary, or any prayer. Since you are baptized and confirmed, you have received the gift of the Holy Spirit. During this pause, recall that the Spirit of God dwells within you. Invite the Holy Spirit to be present with you and to lead you in prayer.

As you pray the Rosary, recall how the Spirit led Mary in her mission of being the Mother of Jesus. The Spirit is present in every Mystery of the Rosary, even if He is not explicitly mentioned. Reflect on how the Spirit is present as you pray each Mystery. As you pray the Rosary, when you find that you have gotten distracted, depend not upon your own effort, but rather pray, "Come, Holy Spirit," and let the Spirit lead you back into prayer.

The Spirit is unpredictable, so I cannot promise you where the Holy Spirit will lead you, if you let Him lead your prayers. But where the Spirit is, there is life. I can assure you that if you let the Spirit lead your prayers, you will find New Life awoken within you.

*Prayers and blessings,
Father Bill*

*"The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you."
Luke 1:35b (ESV)*

Training for Ministers Who Bring Communion to the Homebound

Bishop Ricken has asked that all parishes look at the ways that we distribute Holy Communion, both in the context of the celebration of Mass and bringing Holy Communion to the homebound. As part of the bishop's initiative, our parishes will be offering training for those who bring Communion to the homebound on Wednesday, May 22, 2024 at 6:00pm at St. Gregory Parish Center.

This training includes those who already bring Communion to the homebound, and those who are newcomers to this ministry. This training is mandatory. If you would like to register for the training, or have any other questions, please contact the parish office.

From the North Marian Route

Departing from the headquarters of the Mississippi, the northern arm of the Pilgrimage will descend through the midwestern United States, pass through Wisconsin and Illinois, and meet up with the other three Pilgrimage routes in Indianapolis at the 10th National Eucharistic Congress.

Pilgrims will attend Mass every day of their journey, along with regular evenings of reflection and adoration. As they travel, pilgrims will grow closer to Our Lord through service to local communities, inviting the most marginalized among us to be revived by the Real Presence of Jesus Christ.

About the Intercessor

The Marian route is named for its visit to the National Shrine of Our Lady of Champion—formerly Our Lady of Good Help—the first and only approved Marian Apparition site in the United States. This is fitting, because the very first Eucharistic Pilgrimage was made by our Blessed Mother who traveled with the Body of Christ growing in her womb. Just as Mary followed Jesus perfectly throughout his earthly life, pilgrims will journey closely with Our Lord from May 2024 to July 2024.

Mother of the Incarnation, pray for us!

Will You Join Us On This Historic Journey?

Find out next week how you can be a part of this historical event without needing to travel far.

Home Missions—Our Own Needs Second Collection May 18 & 19, 2024

Home Missions – Our Own Needs collection, which supports the Black and Indian Missions, Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC), Catholic University of America, and Catholic Home Missions dioceses.

This consolidated collection helps the Church evangelize in the US, including here in the Diocese of Green Bay. Your support helps the Church spread the gospel message and form many in their faith. Please use the envelope provided.

UPDATED STIPEND & STOLE FEE STRUCTURE Effective July 1, 2024

- New stipend structure is as follows:
- Mass Stipend $20
- Sanctuary Candle $20
- Funeral Stole fee $75
- Wedding & Quinceanera Stole fee $100

This new fee structure will not be applied retroactively to those who have already paid the appropriate amount from the former fee scale. The new fee structure will be applied to all new requests received as of July 1, 2024. As always, if someone is not able to offer the stipend, the parish is happy to provide the sacrament or service with no fee. Please know, too, that any stipend money collected goes to the parish in support of its ministry and services provided to the parish community; it does not go personally to the priest.

St. Gregory Parish Annual Spring Fling Golf Outing

Autumn Ridge Golf Course, Valders

Friday, June 14, 2024

What you should know ...

Dinner:

- Buffet style and will include: Cabernet Beef Tips, Haddock, Garlic Mashed Potatoes, Corn, Salad, Rolls, and Dessert.
- Individual meal tickets will be $25 (includes 18% gratuity). They will be available at the office or after Masses beginning May 18th. A limited number of meal tickets will be available at the event.

Auction Donations & Sponsors:

- New merchandise, gift certificates, gift baskets, etc., are needed for the silent & oral auctions. Donations can be dropped off at the Parish Office.
- If you know of any businesses that might be interested in getting their name in front of our parish members and the community by supporting our event, donation forms are available in the back of church. Please grab one and pass it on to them.

Golfers:

- Golf, dinner, a drink ticket and a goody bag is included for 4 golfers with a $400 Platinum sponsorship.
- For golfers paying individually— golf, dinner, a drink ticket and a goody bag is $65/person.
- Speedy play please! Last year a number of foursomes got backed up because of slow play. This caused a number of golfers to get back to the clubhouse late and caused rushed meals, the inability to participate in other events at the clubhouse and, in general, messed up the schedule of events. Have fun but play "ready golf". We have it on good authority that no PGA scouts will be at the event looking for future pros.

Fun & Games:

- There will not be a cribbage tournament this year but cribbage boards and cards will be available for those wanting to get a game going.
- The Adult Beverage Tree and the 'Seroogy' Treasure Hunt will return with a few fun twists.
- A limited number of 50/50 raffles will be held as well.
- NEW!! The Golf Ball Drop. A numbered golf ball can be purchased for $5.00. After dinner, all the purchased golf balls will be "dropped" simultaneously. The person whose numbered golf ball lands closest to the designated target will win 50% of the pot! Golf balls will be available for purchase after Masses beginning May 18th or at the outing. Need not be present to win.

Extra Note-Worthy Information:

- Please consider volunteering. There still are about 10 timeslots to fill. Each slot is 2 hours or less. Some possible areas that may need your help: checking in golfers, managing a game/activity, selling 50/50 raffle tickets in the hall, and more. Help is also needed with preparations of raffle baskets and set up. Please contact a committee member, the Parish Office, or sign up after Masses starting May 18th.
- Support the Spring Fling raffle. Pick up additional tickets at either Parish Office or the back of church.

We're looking forward to a fun-filled day with all of you!

Commissioned as Missionary Disciples
for the Church of Green Bay
May 2, 2024
St. Francis Xavier Cathedral, Green Bay

Danielle Faust & Michelle Schneider have completed the Diocese of Green Bay's Missionary Leadership Institute Intensive Year!

The Intensive year is both a stand-alone year for those who want intensive discipleship and leadership formation, and a preparatory year for those who seek deeper formation for ministry, mission, and service.

The Intensive year includes:

- Events and coursework offered in English and Spanish
- Five day-long retreats, including the cornerstone Entrust: Disciples on Mission Retreat
- Franciscan University "Franciscan at Home" online coursework
- Charism discernment
- Formation in prayer, works of mercy, and opportunities for Christian service
- Support and guidance from experienced missionary disciples
- An opportunity to integrate learning as a missionary disciple through a practicum experience
- Assessment of growth in discipleship
- Blessing and commissioning by Bishop David Ricken at the conclusion of the year

Mary: The Church's First

In the Gospel of John, we see the powerful scene in which Jesus gives to the Church his final gift: "Behold, your mother!" (John 19:27). Here we see Jesus inaugurating Mary's role as mother of the Church. Therefore, it should be no surprise that from the very earliest time of the Church, Christians have turned to Mary as their spiritual mother for her prayers and her motherly help.
