Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: We start many of our prayers in the threefold name of the Trinity; along with it, we make the sign of the cross so often that this gesture and these words become a nearly meaningless throwaway gesture. But we are making a great claim when we begin in the name of the Father, Son, and Spirit. To act or speak in someone's name is to be their agent, to take part in their work, to act on their behalf. This is exactly what God invites us to—participation in the ongoing work of God, in all work that moves this world a little closer to the goodness and justice that God intends for us. And the Trinity reveals this, too; to participate in God's life is to participate in the life of loving relationship that the three persons of the Trinity share.

To Experience: The church continues the work of this gospel as we continue to baptize our children and adult converts. We continue to baptize in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; God continues to dispense grace. God's presence is an ongoing gift, flowing out of the love with which we are created and called.

1. What does your baptism mean to you? How do you live out its promises in your everyday life?
2. How do you feel Jesus' promised ongoing presence? How do you struggle to perceive it?
3. Which person of the Trinity do you most often picture when you are praying? Why do you think that is?

Hear to Serve

PSALM 33

During this celebration of the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we have Psalm 33 as our Responsorial Psalm. While a lot of the Psalms are prayers for help against our enemies, for deliverance from our woes, or remission of our sins, Psalm 33 is entirely to do with our praise to God's power and providence.

How many times have we been told that we need to have a relationship with God and that we need to understand what that relationship is based on? Is our relationship with God based on our ideas, our feelings, or our knowledge? No, our relationship should be based on all that God has done for us. It is based on God's relationship to us. That is the point of today's psalm. It is based on the goodness, the power, and the wisdom of God.

God is all good. He is totally trustworthy. God loves justice and is righteous. He is full of kindness, and He is perfect love. We hope in God, not because we are good, but because He is.

God is all powerful. God always was; nothing created God. By His mere word He created the universe and all that is in it, out of nothing.

God is all knowing. His wisdom is unsurpassed. He makes no mistakes. For God always knows what we need, and we do not.

These three attributes of God, total Goodness, power, and wisdom make up the perfect love. St. John tells us, "Perfect love drives out all fear." No matter how hard we try, our love is never perfect, but God's love is always perfect.

Let us remember on this Trinity Sunday that there is One God, but He is three persons. All three persons of the Trinity possess all of these attributes. These divine and perfect attributes can be broken down in a matter of speaking. Divine power is associated with the Father, the Creator of Heaven and earth. Wisdom is associated with the Son, the Word. He was in the beginning with the Father, all things came to be through Him. The Father and the Son's perfect love for each other is the Holy Spirit. Can you imagine a love so perfect it becomes a real person?

These perfect attributes of God allow us to have the attributes of Faith, Hope and Love, which are directed at all Three Persons of the Trinity. We should turn our faith towards the Father, the Creator and Ruler of all things. Let us turn our Hope towards the Son who is our Savior. Our Love should be credited to the Holy Spirit because it's the Holy Spirit that gives us a share in the Divine Love of the Father and the Son.

So, this Trinity Sunday as we proclaim our Responsorial Psalm let us be reminded of God's enduring kindness to us, not only of His past kindness and present kindness in our lives. Let us trust in God's future kindness, and let us pray for awareness of God's kindness in those times that we do not see.

*Deo Gratias,
Deacon Gary*

What you should know ...

Dinner:

- Buffet style and will include: Cabernet Beef Tips, Haddock, Garlic Mashed Potatoes, Corn, Salad, Rolls, and Dessert.
- Individual meal tickets will be $25 (includes 18% gratuity). They will be available at the office or after Masses beginning May 18th. A limited number of meal tickets will be available at the event.

Auction Donations & Sponsors:

- New merchandise, gift certificates, gift baskets, etc., are needed for the silent & oral auctions. Donations can be dropped off at the Parish Office.
- If you know of any businesses that might be interested in getting their name in front of our parish members and the community by supporting our event, donation forms are available in the back of church. Please grab one and pass it on to them.

Golfers:

- Golf, dinner, a drink ticket and a goody bag is included for 4 golfers with a $400 Platinum sponsorship.
- For golfers paying individually— golf, dinner, a drink ticket and a goody bag is $65/person.
- Speedy play please! Last year a number of foursomes got backed up because of slow play. This caused a number of golfers to get back to the clubhouse late and caused rushed meals, the inability to participate in other events at the clubhouse and, in general, messed up the schedule of events. Have fun but play "ready golf". We have it on good authority that no PGA scouts will be at the event looking for future pros.

Fun & Games:

- There will not be a cribbage tournament this year but cribbage boards and cards will be available for those wanting to get a game going.
- The Adult Beverage Tree and the 'Seroogy' Treasure Hunt will return with a few fun twists.
- A limited number of 50/50 raffles will be held as well.
- NEW!! The Golf Ball Drop. A numbered golf ball can be purchased for $5.00. After dinner, all the purchased golf balls will be "dropped" simultaneously. The person whose numbered golf ball lands closest to the designated target will win 50% of the pot! Golf balls will be available for purchase after Masses beginning May 18th or at the outing. Need not be present to win.

Extra Note-Worthy Information:

- Please consider volunteering. There still are about 10 timeslots to fill. Each slot is 2 hours or less. Some possible areas that may need your help: checking in golfers, managing a game/activity, selling 50/50 raffle tickets in the hall, and more. Help is also needed with preparations of raffle baskets and set up. Please contact a committee member, the Parish Office, or sign up after Masses starting May 18th.
- Support the Spring Fling raffle. Pick up additional tickets at either Parish Office or the back of church.

We're looking forward to a fun-filled day with all of you!
