Thoughts for Today's Readings

To the Point: Sometimes hearing this reading can make us feel pity for Mary. Jesus' response to her presence seems a bit callous, almost as if he is rejecting her in favor of his faithful listeners. But Jesus' message is one of radical inclusion. He does not just offer us citizenship in heaven; he offers us places in God's very family. When we are adopted as children of God in baptism, we become co-heirs with Christ. Mary is not being rejected; after all, she too is one who "does the will of God." Jesus' inclusion of all echoes her Magnificat with its call to upend the world's power structures. We are called to echo Mary in saying "yes" to God's call and in bringing Jesus ever more fully into the world.

To Experience: We very often forget to embrace others in the church as our brothers and sisters in Christ. We are all too often divided by liturgical preference and political leanings. But the unity Christ wants for us, the unity that is made real in the Eucharist, is far greater and more real than anything that divides us.

1. How do you discern the will of God in your own life? How so you respond to God's callings?
2. How can you more fully embrace others in the church as your brothers and sisters in Christ?
3. The psalm promises God's mercy and redemption in the face of sin. How have you experienced God's mercy in your own life?

Thurs/June 13	I Kings 18:41-46	Matthew 5:20-26
Fri/June 14	I Kings 19:9a, 11-16	Matthew 5:27-32
Sat/June 15	I Kings 19:19-21	Matthew 5:33-37
Sun/June 16	Ezekiel 17:22-24 II Corinthians 5:6-10	Mark 4:26-34

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

At the end of the Gospel this weekend, it seems like Jesus treats His own family quite harshly. They are outside, and they are calling for Him. But He seems to ignore them.

But is this what is really going on?

The Gospel passage ends with these words, "whoever does the will of God, he is my brother and sister and mother" (Mark 3:35, ESV). Rather than rejecting His family members, Jesus is expanding who can be in His family. Family relationships with Jesus are no longer limited by "blood and law." Rather, anyone who does the will of God, now has the full right to call themselves the sons and daughters of God.

Is this not what we pray for when we pray, "Our Father, Who art in heaven... Thy will be done...?"

At times in our lives, we can feel like the relatives of Jesus in today's Gospel. We feel outside of His presence, and we are calling, but He seems to ignore us. As we reflect on this, we need to ask, "Am I trying to conform my will to the Lord's will or am I trying to impose my own will on the Lord?"

It is difficult to do, but the inner peace that we seek is not found by trying to impose our own will, but rather by saying "Yes" to God's will. When we do this, we find that we are brought into the Lord's "inner circle" and close to His presence.

This is modeled for us by the Blessed Virgin Mary. How did she respond when she received the amazing message from the Archangel Gabriel, "You will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus" (Luke 1:31, ESV)? She could have easily responded, "But I have a plan to get married, and have a family with Joseph." She could have sought to do her own will. But she did not respond this way. Rather, she says, "Behold, I am the servant [f] of the Lord; let it be to me according to your word" (Luke 1:38, ESV).

By Mary's "Yes" to God's plan for her life, she became the Mother of God, both spiritually and bodily. We too, can follow her example, and by our "Yes" to God's plan, truly be called brothers and sisters of Christ.

Blessings, Father Bill

A Welcoming Environment

To create a more hospitable environment, some changes have been implemented to the welcome area of Holy Trinity. The changes were made to help declutter the overall entry, but more importantly, to help the flow of traffic after Mass, providing quite prayer time for people in the nave, while still allowing for socialization after Mass out in the narthex and hall. Changes were made after consulting with the Diocese and parish staff and volunteers that oversee the care of those spaces. Changes have been approved by pastoral council and will be tested for the next several months.

Summer Workshops:

The Magnificat

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior for he has looked with favor on his lowly servant. From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me, and holy is His Name.

He has mercy on those who fear him in every generation. He has shown the strength of his arm, he has scattered the proud in their conceit.

He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he has sent away empty.

He has come to the help of his servant Israel for he remembered his promise of mercy, the promise he made to our fathers, to Abraham and his children forever. Amen.
